Travel Training with Beaumont Pass Transit

Beaumont, CA— Forget about gas prices, traffic and paid parking, Beaumont Pass Transit will show you how to travel Southern California without a car!

In the summer of 2017, Beaumont Pass Transit began offering Travel Training to teach riders how to utilize local public transportation to access major connection points and destinations. The program focused on how Beaumont's Commuter Link 120 connects riders to the San Bernardino Metrolink and beyond to LA Union Station. To date, 60 riders have participated in the program.

This spring Beaumont Pass Transit, in partnership with Riverside Transportation Agency (RTA), will highlight RTA's newest route, Commuterlink Express Route 200, which provides express lane service connecting San Bernardino, Riverside, the Village at Orange, Anaheim and Disneyland resort. Additional training destinations include LA Union Station and the beach areas of San Juan Capistrano and Oceanside.
